

LIFE ON MISSION

Part 3: Red Light, Green Light

August 5, 2018 // Wes Pierce

Green Light: Tell the story of your _____

The gospel is a _____ truth and you have been _____ with it.

Missions is not a _____, the mission is a _____.

You have been _____ to play a part in the _____ of others.

Red Light: We allow ourselves to _____ onto the best _____ of all.

The way to combat the Gospel becoming _____ is to constantly remember the _____ of your salvation.

Red Light: We allow our _____ to hold our _____.

Your past plays a part in your _____ but it does not _____ you.

Live in the _____ that you have experienced.

When we hold on to our _____ and look forward to our _____, it holds us back from being who God wants us to be now.

Green Light: Be who God has _____ you to be and watch Him _____.

People will praise God when we live _____ with who He has called us to be.

EVERYONE IS A GREETER AT COOK!