

September 2, 2018 // Jeff Smart

Romans - Foundations of Faith, Part Two: Unashamed

The Book of Romans is a letter that is rich in _____ and tells us a lot about the _____.

The Gospel

God's _____ of salvation through the work of Jesus—His death, burial and resurrection.

The Gospel

The Salvation _____ story of Jesus.

Rome

1. _____ culture – worship of many gods
2. _____ culture – sexual immorality.

“Servant” in verse 1 should be translated “_____”

“Obligated” = indebted to _____ good news

The Gospel is the _____ of _____.

What makes the gospel relevant is not that it's like our culture, but that it is _____ our culture.

D.A Carson describes “the watering down of the gospel”
as “_____ the gospel”.

This invitation of the gospel is offered to _____ who believes.

When we find ourselves ashamed of the gospel, often times it's because we've _____ the power of it ourselves.

We _____ on God's Word; we don't _____ for it.

EVERYONE IS A GREETER