

RETHINKING

the CHURCH

January 27, 2019 // Jeff Smart
Series: Rethinking the Church // Part 1 – Love with Purpose

Scripture References: Ephesians 1:22-23; John 13:34-35; Ephesians 4:15; 1 John 4:7-8, 11; Philippians 1:6 (Please put references in bulletin)

It's unrealistic to expect the _____ to be perfect and without flaw when it's comprised of _____ who are flawed and imperfect.

Christ is the _____ of the church.
You cannot separate Christ from His church.

The church, through the power of Jesus Christ, has the ability to be _____ changing and transforming.

1. Why is it so important that I love _____?

Love is the mark of a _____.

God's love for you will _____ be agape love.

When the Church is _____ God is _____.

2. How can I love with a _____ love?

A. I can love _____.

B. I can love _____.

We are _____ of Christ.

The Church is made up of _____ and _____ people who are a work in progress.

Giving lip service to love is easily _____, but love lived out is _____.

EVERYONE IS A GREETER AT COOK!